

Daniel CHAFFRAIX

Executive Vice-President in charge of Transformation

Executive Vice-President in charge of North America and India

Daniel Chaffraix has been Executive Vice-President in charge of Transformation since 2015.

Daniel started his career in the banking industry. He spent more than 20 years at IBM in various positions contributing to far-reaching transformations within the Group, serving in particular as CEO of IBM France European Executive of IBM Global Services, as well as Manufacturing & Development Manager and before CFO of Axone group. Since 2010, Daniel Chaffraix has served as Chief Executive Officer of Infrastructure Services for various geographic areas at Cap Gemini, where he contributed to a range of transformations and customer deals. He is graduated from the Ecole Supérieure de Commerce de Clermont Ferrand (1980) and the University of Kansas (1981).